Hacker's
every day decision

An iceberg diagram illustrating the hierarchy of cybersecurity. The visible tip above the water is white and contains the text 'Zero day acquisition'. The submerged part of the iceberg is blue and contains three levels of text from top to bottom: 'Bug Bounty program', 'Cyber attack plan, incident management', and 'Pentest / Security code audit' followed by 'Soft'n'Hard solution'. The bottom-most part of the image, below the waterline, is dark grey and contains the text 'IT guy / Security Engineer' followed by 'Security Department'.
